Biography: Attorney Latrice M. Milton

Latrice M. Milton is the managing partner of Milton Family Law, S.C., a divorce law firm for women. Milton is also the owner and designer of Milton Divorce Coaching, Inc. a unique divorce coaching business started in Brookfield, Wis. that serves the needs of women during any stage of the divorce process - pre-divorce, during divorce and post-divorce.

Previously, Milton has worked for the Ohio Senate Minority Caucus. There, she developed, researched and lobbied for new laws that would benefit women and children. One such bill, Senate Bill 126, focused on preventing cyberbullying and allowing women who are victims of domestic violence to end their lease agreement or change their locks.

Milton also worked as an Assistant District Attorney in Wisconsin, covering misdemeanor and felony cases, including violent assault and battery matters.

Milton graduated from the University of Wisconsin Law School in 2006. She also received her Bachelor of Science degrees from University of Wisconsin-Madison with double majors in Psychology and Behavioral Science & Law, and a minor in Criminal Justice.

Blending her knowledge of law, and passion for psychology and women advocacy, in 2012, Milton completed life coach training with the CAPP Institute, a program certified by the International Coach Federation.

Attorney Milton is involved in several organizations geared toward supporting women, including the Wisconsin Women's' Entrepreneur Association - Greater Milwaukee Chapter, TEMPO Waukesha and Professional Dimensions. She serves as a volunteer and board member for The Women's Center, Inc. and is an Allocations Committee member for the United Way of Waukesha County. Milton is also a board member for the Wisconsin Association of African American Lawyers. She also recently won the 2013 Business Journal's 40 Under 40.

During her free time, Milton enjoys working out, learning to speak French, and experimenting with new vegetarian meals.
